

Lenovo APOS Services

Add value to your current devices with solutions for protection, productivity, and business continuity.

In a technology-reliant world, there's bound to be the odd bump in the road. With businesses growing increasingly reliant on technology to manage their day-to-day tasks, and employee productivity often heavily dependent on personal devices, Lenovo APOS services help you proactively protect your business continuity while saving money and avoiding unwelcome surprises.

Technology downtime has a direct impact on your profitability, so the more you can minimize disruptions and keep your employees productive, the better positioned you are to protect your bottom line. Offering a more complex and flexible range of services, such as monthly billing and short-term extensions that enable you to choose the coverage period, Lenovo's APOS solutions allow you to be proactive about managing your risks and protecting your uptime.

Protect your uptime and reduce unexpected costs with Lenovo

With a flexible combination of services, your warranty and support solutions will fit your business like a glove, protecting your uptime to maximize your productivity and profitability.

Protect your investment with Accidental Damage Protection

Protect your devices from drops, bumps, spills, and structural failures incurred under normal operating and handling conditions. Lenovo offers multiple ADP options to protect your hardware from damage that's not typically covered under standard warranties.

Extend your warranty to avoid unexpected expenses and disrupted budgets

Control unplanned maintenance and reduce OPEX. Minimize unplanned break/fix expenses and enjoy consistent service levels that match the expected cycle of your PCs.

Increase your workforce productivity with Premier Support

Premier Support manages routine support tasks so that your IT staff can focus their efforts on moving your organization forward. With direct access to Lenovo's elite team of engineers, you'll receive on-site repairs, plus unscripted, advanced hardware and software support that boosts your team's productivity and limits their downtime.

Lenovo Asset Recovery Services

Maximize value at the end of your technology lifecycle

Get paid for legacy devices

Receive a Fair Market Value for each device that you retire (hardware, accessories and peripherals), and get back the capital you need to boost your investment in your next IT refresh.

Mitigating the danger of unmanaged data disposition

Our team will also ensure your organization remains compliant with privacy laws such as HIPPA, GDPR, CCPA, Sarbanes Oxley, GrammLeach-Bliley, and others. This has the dual benefit of giving clients and customers confidence in your business, as well as mediating any civil liability and the associated costs.

Strategic, socially responsible and compliant

Lenovo helps your business do its part to be environmentally and socially responsible. Our expert team will ensure your old assets are securely and sustainably disposed, providing the documentation and certifications around the executed process.
