WHY THIS MATTERS NOW: INSIGHTS FROM CDW CANADA'S DIGITAL WORKSPACE TRENDS REPORT

CDW Canada's 2024 report, Uncharted Innovation: The Rise of Unofficial AI Tool Usage Among Canadian Office Workers, reveals a critical inflection point for Canadian organizations:

- 47% of employees are already using unapproved AI tools at work
- 73% are learning AI through informal channels like social media and forums – raising serious compliance and data security concerns.
- 61% of employees feel more comfortable using AI when it's officially implemented by their organization.
- Only 27% of organizations have engaged third-party experts to support AI implementation – despite the complexity and risk involved.

These findings underscore the urgency for structured, secure and strategic AI enablement.

WHY CDW?
