

CDW Canada Named Canadian Partner of the Year by Veeam

CDW Canada recognized for its outstanding success and commitment to delivering industry-leading solutions and services to joint customers.

Toronto, ON – May 23, 2023

CDW Canada, a leading provider of technology solutions and services for Canadian organizations, proudly announces it has been selected as the 2022 Canada Partner of the Year by Veeam Software (“Veeam”), a leader in data protection and ransomware recovery. The award was presented to CDW Canada at VeeamON 2023, an industry event bringing together data recovery experts, in Miami, Florida.

CDW Canada was awarded Canada Partner of the Year for demonstrating the best overall performance and expertise in the backup, recovery and data management space, while collaborating with Veeam to help customers meet their business objectives.

The awards are held annually to recognize the success and commitment of Veeam partners who surpassed expectations in delivering industry-leading solutions and services that keep businesses running.

“Being recognized as the Canada Partner of the Year demonstrates our success in helping organizations across Canada navigate the complex IT landscape,” said Ginette Adragna, Vice President and General Manager, CDW Canada. “In the current high-threat environment, a robust data resiliency strategy is critical to protect against cyber threats. Through this partnership, we are helping transform business technology and powering customer success, together.”
