Accidental Damage Protection

Accidents happen, even to exceptionally engineered PCs, especially when subject to the wear and tear of student use. This type of damage isn't covered by standard warranty terms. It can be expensive to repair and also contributes significantly to unwanted idle time. With a one-time initial investment, Accidental Damage Protection (ADP) provides a fixed-cost, fixed-term solution that saves parents and administrators from the hassle and expense of accidental damage. ADP is available on all Think branded notebooks, tablets and desktops.

What's typically covered?¹

- Accidental drops • Accidental spills • Bumps • Damage to the integrated LCD screen • Structural failures incurred under normal operating conditions • Electrical surges

OUT OF WARRANTY REPAIR	OUT OF WARRANTY COST
Minor Repairs	$350 (USD)
Multiple Parts Replacement	$950
