CDW Canada supports the Canadian Red Cross' appeal in British Columbia and reaffirms commitment to matching coworker donations to the region through its Matching Charitable Gifts Program

Toronto, ON – November 23, 2021

CDW Canada, a leading provider of technology solutions and services for Canadian organizations has joined forces with a coalition of Vancouver companies raising almost one million dollars for the Canadian Red Cross in support of the British Columbia Floods and Extreme Weather Appeal.

“We are deeply saddened by the devastating effects of the flooding in across British Columbia,” said Ginette Adragna, Vice President and General Manager, CDW Canada. “Our thoughts are with all our coworkers, partners, customers, individuals and communities who have been affected by this disaster. This is an immensely difficult time for British Columbians, and we are committed to supporting the Canadian Red Cross in their efforts to provide critical humanitarian assistance to those in need.”

CDW Canada is committed to further helping the Canadian Red Cross by matching coworker donations dollar for dollar through the Matching Charitable Gifts Program.
