

CDW Canada Marks 16 Years of Continuous Support to the SickKids Foundation

CDW Canada coworkers have raised more than $668,000 over the years

Toronto, ON – August 19, 2022

CDW Canada, a leading provider of technology solutions and services for Canadian organizations, is thrilled to announce it has donated over $30,000 this year to The Hospital for Sick Children (“SickKids”). The donation will support hospital operations and research. This marks the 16th year of CDW Canada’s ongoing commitment to the SickKids Foundation. Over the years, it has raised more than $668,000 for SickKids which is made possible in large part by the generous donations of CDW Canada coworkers.

This is a continuation of the longstanding partnership between CDW Canada and SickKids and reinforces CDW’s passion and dedication to supporting its local communities.

“The importance of the work and research conducted by SickKids cannot be understated, nor can the critical value of accessible healthcare. This has always been true but has been emphasized in a major way over the last few years,” said Ginette Adragna, Vice President and General Manager, CDW Canada. “I could not be prouder of the enormous generosity that our CDW Canada coworkers continue to demonstrate for SickKids, a cause very near and dear to us. Supporting our community is a key pillar of our culture at CDW and I look forward to continuing this momentum in the years to come.”

“SickKids relies on support from the community and we are proud of our longstanding partnership with CDW,” says Adam Starkman, Vice President of Corporate Partnerships, SickKids Foundation. “The funds raised and donated by CDW employees are an investment in child health research and care and helps SickKids deliver better health outcomes for children in Canada and around the world.”

CDW Canada continues to partner with SickKids to support the hospital’s ongoing innovations that help uplift communities and save lives. To learn more about CDW
