

2021 Gartner Magic Quadrant for Indoor Location Services, Global
Juniper Networks, driven by Mist AI, a provider of secure, AI-driven networks, IoT and location solutions, is positioned as Furthest in Completeness of Vision for 2021 Gartner Magic Quadrant for Indoor Location Services, Global.

We believe this further validates what many of our customers have realized in deploying Mist AI for their multiple location use cases and is based on a combination of independent research by Gartner and interviews that Gartner held with our customers as part of this research.

View this complimentary research report where we believe you will learn about Gartner's perspective on the indoor location market and their perspective on how vendors meet the requirements and use cases across multiple vertical needs.

Get the report