

Product Evaluation Program

See. Try. Buy.

Try Neat risk-free.

We want you to love your Neat device, so we want you to try it risk-free for up to 30 days. You can do this through our Neat Product Evaluation Program via your certified Neat partner.

We're confident your Neat device will help create magical meeting spaces for you, but if for some reason it doesn't quite suit your needs, you can return it. Whatever you choose, you've got nothing to lose, so test one today.

Neat Product Evaluation Program.

The Neat Product Evaluation Program (PEP) is available to businesses looking to video-enable multiple meeting spaces across their hybrid workplace. It's an ideal option if you're looking to experience Neat across ten or more meeting spaces.

Here's how it works. Your Neat devices are shipped directly to you, and you have a dedicated team of Neat support specialists ready to provide help and guidance throughout your entire 30 day trial period.

If Neat is your perfect solution, your Evaluation Coordinator will help you finalize the purchase of your onsite devices through your certified Neat partner.

Buy with a 30-day 100% satisfaction guarantee.

When you purchase one of our devices through a certified Neat partner, we offer a 30-day money-back guarantee. If for whatever reason you change your mind, simply send it back in its original packaging and we'll reimburse you plus pay the shipping on receipt of the returned unit at our warehouse.

If you love it, keep it. If not:

- Please ensure your product is in like-new condition.
- Keep your packaging so you can ship it back inside.
- Contact us before the end of your 30-day trial.
- We'll arrange to pick up the package.
