WE GET THE SKILLS YOU NEED TO OPTIMIZE YOUR PALO ALTO NETWORKS TECHNOLOGY.

CDW Amplified™ Information Security
Palo Alto Networks Training Overview

Palo Alto Networks and its network security, cloud security and threat detection technologies are driving rapid evolution in the security industry by helping customers safely enable their applications, users, content and devices from any connected network. As with any revolutionary technology, there will be a learning curve. Technical training is critical, and CDW is committed to helping its customers build the necessary skills to maintain their security posture and reduce their attack surface. That's why we offer a full lineup of Palo Alto Networks–certified training options, delivered by world–class instructors with proven Palo Alto Networks experience.

Palo Alto Networks Training can help you:

- Maximize ROI
- Acquire Skills
- Prepare for Certification

Courses Overview

CDW is a Palo Alto Networks Authorized Training Partner, and CDW's courses use Palo Alto Networks accredited courseware, qualified instructors, and immersive and interactive digital labs. With introductory to advanced courses on a variety of Palo Alto Networks technologies, CDW offers you and your team everything needed to deploy, configure and manage your Palo Alto Networks solutions.

- Interactive Instruction: Most courses seamlessly blend instructor–led training with interactive lab activities, ensuring your new knowledge turns into new skills.

- Latest Insights: Course materials are always up–to–date, ensuring your training is current with the latest product and software releases.

- Instructors: Each course is led by a certified instructor, vetted by both Palo Alto Networks and CDW, who has demonstrated excellence in delivery, technical skills and classroom management.

- Training Credits: As an Authorized Training Partner, CDW accepts Palo Alto Networks Training Credits for all our Palo Alto Networks courses.

- Flexible Delivery: CDW offers most training in virtual and classroom settings, with open enrollment for individuals and small groups or private sessions for teams and large groups.

In addition to courses on Palo Alto Networks technologies, CDW offers a wide range of cybersecurity and IT training to complete your workforce development program. Contact your CDW account team to explore popular courses in threat hunting, cloud security, application development and dozens of other skill and technology areas.
